French food feast coming to Subiaco

An array of French-inspired food awaits attendees at the Air Mauritius Bonjour Perth Festival in Subiaco.

The festival, which brings two days of entertainment for all ages to Market Square Park, will have dishes from France and several other countries on offer.

Victoria Levadoux, event organiser, said, "Bonjour Perth celebrates the culture not only of France, but of French-speaking countries spread across the globe with diverse and delicious cuisines."

Festival-goers will find famous French dishes such as boeuf bourguignon, coq au vin, and sweet and savoury crêpes, as well as lesser-known regional recipes such as flammekueche (a very thin pizza with a cream-based sauce from Alsace).

Dishes from around the French-speaking world will include Moroccan tagines, Mauritian biryani, Caribbean 'soul food', and raclette, a cheese melted over potatoes and meats that is popular in Switzerland.

For those with a sweet tooth, there will be numerous treats to enjoy on the spot or take home including macarons, croissants and crème brûlée.

"I would recommend bringing along family and friends so you can share a few dishes for lunch - there are too many amazing options to choose just one!" said Mrs Levadoux. "And make sure to pick up some typical French picnic foods to take home. There will be top-quality authentic meat products like terrines and foie gras, cheeses, and of course fresh French breads and pastries."

Licensed areas with bars will provide French wines and beers to wash it all down, and free cooking demonstrations sponsored by YouPlateIt will showcase classic recipes like mille-feuille.

The festival team has made sustainability a top priority this year, meaning all food served for consumption onsite will be in compostable packaging and attendees are encouraged to bring their own reusable plates and cutlery (which can be cleaned at the dedicated dishwashing stations).

More than 100 food and gift stalls and 30 performers with a French connection are involved in the event.

The Air Mauritius Bonjour Perth Festival will be at Market Square Park, Subiaco, on Saturday 9 and Sunday 10 November. Tickets are available at bonjourperth.com.au or at the gate.
